MINISTER DE LOME'S OPINION OF AFFAIRS IN MADRID,

About the Recent Turn of Affairs in Chilian Currency -- Patent Office Gazette--Cholera in Russia--Washington News.

Washington, June 4.—There is no oncer any reasonable doubt that the acrisis was imminent.

The minister is satisfied that the adverse vote on some minor question not involving the government policy, saying he would be informed at once if a crisis was imminent.

The budget will be passed by July 1, as the fiscal year ends then. The cortese will then adjourn and it is definitely understood that an election will be held. longer any reasonable doubt that the president has fully determined to ask Attorney General Olney to accept the state department portfolio, undoubtedly in response to a telegram from the president, who it is believed would not hesitate to offer Mr. Gray a place in his cabinet were it not for the fact that his retirement from the senate would almost certainly result in the election of a Republican as his successor. It is thought that up to this time, the president has not definitely decided upon Mr. Olney's successor. A long list om names are being discussed, but everything in that connection is purely speculative. Ex-Postmaster General Dan M. Dickenson, it is said, undoubtedly in response to a telegram

General Don M. Dickenson, it is said, would be very likely of appointment if he would accept. A possibility is Mr. Holmes Conrad of Virginia, the present solicitor general. He has the reputation of being a man of brilliant legal attainments and enjoys the high regard of the members of the United States supreme court. The fact that Mr. Conrad comes from Virginia, however, may operate against his appointment, but in case he is selected it is believed that Mr. Uhl, the present assistant secretary, would be a candidate for the vacant solicitor generalship. Mr. Uhl was a candidate for this place at the time Mr. Maxwell was appointed, and it is believed the charges from the description. believed the change from the depart-ment of state to that of justice would Sensational rumors were current here tonight relating to the alleged intention of Chase and his penitentiary employes to resist by force of arms any attempt to oust Chase, it being announced from Leavenworth that Lynch successor to Warden Chase, and Attorney General Dawes, were expected there and had wired for the sheriff and deputies, and that trouble was feared when they should try to oust Chase, as it was reported that the employes of the penitentiary were armed for resistance.

There seems to be no truth in the story, however, to the effect that trouble is imminent at the penitentiary. dertook to form a cabinet that the other parties should assist in passing the budget. This was essential by reason of the strength of the different parties in the house, which is about as follows: Conservatives, 100; Liberals, 200; Republicans, 25; Carlists, 3, and Cuban and Porto Rico members 25.

The minister is satisfied that the adverse vate on same minor contents and that trouble was feared verse vate on same minor contents.

There seems to be no truth in the story, however, to the effect that trou-ble is imminent at the penitentiary. Governor Morrill formally revomed Warden Chase tonight, but he appointed no one to succeed him. J. Bruce Lynch, who will be appointed tomorrow, has gone, not to Leavenworth, but to his home in Chanute. Neither has Attorney General Dawes gone to Leavenworth. The general sentiment at Leavenworth is that when a demand is made upon Chase for posses sion he will give up without precipitat-ing trouble.

Chase has made a stubborn fight and Chase has made a stubborn fight and the Populists have held out that he would win against all arguments and evidence. Chase has always been one of the most prominent leaders of the third party in Kansas. He originally appeared from Cowley county and was made seargent-at-arm in the first Populist house. From that time on he had a controlling influence in the party and did more to dictate its actions than any other man with the exception of Breidenthal.

When Lewelling was elected, Chase when Leweling was elected, Chase had the power to demand the best thing in the gift of the executive and received it. He is a tall, six foot, bighanded man, something of a bluffer and bruiser, and the chances are that he will carry his fight to retain the wardenship into the courts.

London, June 4.-It is reported here his evening that Oscar Wilde has become insane in prison and is confined in a padded room. The Daily Chronicle prints a letter nearly a column long from "A Mother," ti which it editorially calls attention with extreme seriousness, and which, for the first time, gives utterance through the public press to frightful accusations which have been talked of for years in private here. It is a voice raised against practices alleged to be now rife and of long standing in Eton and in Harrow. When a number of the most prominent young men fled from Enland a few years ago after the Cleveland street exposure it was current talk that vice was learned at those school and vice was learned at those schoosl and was an incident of the "fagging" system—that is, the system under which lower class students do mental work for those in upper classes. The fact that names of many men of high positions have been connected with the present scandal has revived these charges. This mother to whose sad letter the Chronicle gives such prominence, commenting upon the public criticism of Wilde and Taylor, writes:

"The reason for this reluctance is not far to seek. Open inquiry in a house must mean scandal more or less widely known. It may have to result in a clean sweep of many of the inmates of that house. A clean sweep not only involves an injury to the whole school and thereby a loss of its prestige, but it further entalls a dead loss to the house master, whose profits would be thereby considerably interfered with."

Whereas, Colonel H. B. Freeman, acting Indian agent, has sanctioned and approved of said Ralph Collins' conduct, in total disregard of the known wishes of the Osage people, and is now responsible for the said Collins being in the position he now occupies, by reason of a certain report he made to the department of Indian affairs; and. Whereas, The said Freeman has stood out against the best interests and wishes of the Osage people, and for the wishes and interests of traders and combines, and has so conducted himself toward the Osage people in his official capacity as to incur their extreme ill will, thereby rendering himself wholly incapable of being of any valuable service to them; and, Whereas, By reason of his many acts of petty tyrauny in dealing with the Indians and white people on the reservation he has shown himself to be a man governed by petty prejudices and passions and wholly unfit for the position of Indian agent of the Osage; therefore, be it Resolved, That it is deemed best for the moral and educational welfare of the Osage children that they be sent.
